

Lesson 1:How to use dictionary

Definition: a dictionary is a reference book that gives you information about words and what they mean.

Uses of a dictionary:

1. To give you the word and what they look like.
2. To know how to pronounce the sound.
3. The definition of words.
4. Words in alphabetical order.
5. To know the number of syllables.

Lesson 2 : Present tense

Present tense: used to describe an action which happen normally, generally, often, sometimes.

Form:

(he, she, it) + (v+s/es)

(you, they, we) + (v+infinity)

Lesson 3 : Signal words

*Signal words are words that help you to understand the structure of the text.

*There are three types of signal word text structure:

1. Direction: the word help to describe features, characteristic.

Example of it is just, like, even, for example, for instance, such as ... etc.

e.g There are several types of fruits such as apples and oranges.

2. Cause and effect: it show the relationship between cause "why" and effect "what". Example of it: since, because, as a result, due to.....etc.

e.g The concert got canceled because the lead singer was ill.

3. Sequence: it describes the order or explain the steps to follow, like a recipe or direction. Examples of it first, second, third, besides, to add, andetc.

e.g First peel the bananas and, put them in a blender. Second add some orange juice. Finally , turn on the blender again.

Exercise: Write these stories in their proper order:

1. Then she spread the jelly on the other side of the bread. Next she spread peanut butter on one slice of the bread. After that she put the two slices of the bread together. Finally she ate it. First Lucy got two slices of the bread.

2. Last he decorated the snow man. Then he stucked an another snow man ball for the head. Next he put a small ball on top of the big snow ball. First joe rolled a big snow ball.